

Future Teacher Scholarships

The Teachers Credit Union is offering 5 scholarships of $5,000 per year to Future Teachers, to cover studying related expenses such as course fees or board and lodging. The scholarship is given out to students who understand the value of public education and the need to be proactive in promoting financial literacy when they get into the classroom.

For more information please go to the Future Teachers Scholarship website.